John King Carter, Holy Family organist and choirmaster, proudly announces the next concert of the 2017-2018 season of free concerts at Holy Family. Mezzo-soprano Sarah Ellena Hogrefe returns to Holy Family on Sunday, November 19 at 3:30 PM. singing songs of Schubert and Debussy. Mr. Carter will accompany her on the piano.

In her programming, Hogrefe offers audiences a wealth of emotional experiences for enjoyment and contemplation, and invites each listener to explore what it means to be human. When she's not singing recitals, Hogrefe spends her time teaching voice lessons, practicing yoga, walking, hiking, cooking, and writing.

The concert is followed by a brief service of Choral Evensong, sung by the Holy Family Parish Choir. This is a free concert and the whole community is cordially invited. A reception follows evensong.
