TODAY AT HOLY FAMILY

A warm welcome to our visitors! Please register in our Guest Book in the foyer. If you have questions about Holy Family, please see an usher or the Vestry Person of the Day (the person giving the announcements); they will be glad to help.

CONCERT OF SPIRITUALS THIS AFTERNOON

Our Concert Series continues this afternoon at 3:30 PM with a vocal concert by noted Atlanta baritone Jarius Cliett. Mr. Cliett will sing a program of African-American spirituals and then join the Holy Family Choir as soloist for Evensong. Please bring your friends to this inspiring Sunday afternoon event.

LENTEN PROGRAM BEGINS THIS WEDNESDAY

As in years past, we offer a Lenten Supper and Program on all the Wednesdays in Lent at 5:30 PM, beginning this Wednesday the 21st.

Sign-up sheets for setting up furniture and bringing food are located in the Parish Hall.

Dr. Shlomo Pill is our presenter this year. Dr. Pill will speak on the development of Judaism from the 1st century to the present. The evening ends with the brief service of Compline.

THE WORD OF GOD

The Collect

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD

The Lesson Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7

Psalm 25:1-9 Transcribed from The St. Helena Psalter

The Psalm is spoken responsively between Leader and People.

To you, O God, I lift up my soul;
my God, I put my trust in you;
let me not be humiliated,
nor let my enemies triumph over me.
Let none who look to you be put to shame;
let the treacherous be disappointed in their schemes.
Show me your ways, O God,
and teach me your paths.
Lead me in your truth and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation;
in you have I trusted all the day long.
Remember, O God, your compassion and love,
for they are from everlasting.
Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions;
remember me according to your love
and for the sake of your goodness, O God.
Gracious and upright are you, O God;
therefore you teach sinners in your way.
You guides the humble in doing right
and teaches your way to the lowly.
All the paths of God are love and faithfulness to those who keep God's covenant and testimonies.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Anthem Ralph Vaughan Williams
The blessed Son of God only In a crib full poor did lie;
With our poor flesh and our poor blood Was cloth' d that everlasting good. Kyrieleison.
The Lord, Christ Jesu, God' s son dear, Was a guest and a stranger here;
Us for to bring from misery, That we might live eternally. Kyrieleison.
All this did he for us freely, For to declare His great mercy;
All Christendom be merry therefore And give Him thanks evermore. Kyrieleison.

The Lesson: Genesis 9:8-17

God said to Noah and to his sons with him, "As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth." God said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

The Epistle: 1 Peter 3:18-22

Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you-- not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

The Gospel: Mark 1:9-15

In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

And the Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on him.

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news."
